ACTS of Love Volunteer Requirements and Guidelines

The quality of the center staff will determine the quality of the program as a whole. It is vital that all staff and volunteers work together to best serve our children and their families. Teachers should model the Christian faith, promote professionalism, and act with compassion in all aspects of their job, in their own personal life, and in relationships with other staff, students, and families.

Model Behavior:

- Lives the Christian faith by loving the Lord and loving young children
- Works cooperatively with others
- Responds with compassion and sensitivity to children, families, and staff
- Smiles, laughs, and communicates with a pleasant tone
- Promotes growth, development, love, and forgiveness

Serve as facilitator:

- Assists the teacher with all classroom activities
- Maintains an environment that encourages growth, exploration, and learning
- Uses good judgment to handle crisis situations and uses supervision constructively.

Education/Experience requirements:

- Some experience working with infants and toddlers
- Pass a Texas State Criminal Background Check
- Have a Notarized Licensing Affidavit For Applicants For Employment form (form will be provided)
- Be free of active TB
- Complete all necessary trainings in order to work in an infant and toddler classroom setting
